From the Head of the UGCC: I see victory of Ukraine in the eyes of priests and volunteers

“As I spoke with our military chaplains, I truly felt the pain in their eyes and hearts for the fallen soldiers and wounded civilians,” His Beatitude Sviatoslav, the Father and Head of the Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church, remarked in his daily wartime address on the 27th day of the Russian war against Ukraine. “I want to assure you that every cent of yours, every gift of yours, has reached its addressee and found the specific person for whom you have performed an act of mercy,” he said. “Today we are praying that the Lord, together with the spring sun, will send peace to Ukraine. Let the war stop! We are praying for Ukraine!” His Beatitude Sviatoslav asked.
