More than four hundred thousand worshippers took part in UGCC prayer vigil for peace

Wednesday, January 26, 2022, at the initiative of Pope Francis, became World Day of Prayer for Peace in Ukraine and the world. The Holy Father proclaimed it after Angelus Prayer on Sunday. Prayers for peace took place in different countries, on all continents with the participation of the entire Catholic Church. This day the UGCC hosted an all-day prayer vigil, which was attended by UGCC metropolises from all over the world. The online prayer marathon lasted on Zhyve.TV for 12 hours - from 9:00 am to 9:00 pm. Overall, about half a million believers took part in it. After Pope Francis called for a Day of Prayer for Peace, His Beatitude Sviatoslav, the Father and Head of the UGCC addressed the faithful with an invitation to join this prayer vigil, the spiritual guardian of peace in Ukraine: "World prayer is a moment of special spiritual guard to which Pope Francis calls us today. I call on all the children of our Church to join the prayer of spiritual guard wherever you are. I am asking you to pray for Ukraine. May the Lord hear our prayers! My He accept our prayers! May fasting and penance be stronger than any modern weapon! May God let peace descend on Ukraine and on the whole world!"
