Pope prays for Ukraine as Kherson residents welcome Ukrainian troops

Pope Francis urges everyone to remain close to Ukraine and never be resigned to war, as Ukrainian troops carry out "stabilization measures" near the city of Kherson after retaking the area from Russian forces. "Let us always remain close to our brothers and sisters in martyred Ukraine: close in prayer and in concrete solidarity. Peace is possible! Let us not resign ourselves to war." Ukraine's defence ministry urged Russian soldiers to surrender to stay alive, saying their commanders had abandoned them. However, after brief celebrations, Ukrainian soldiers prepared for more battles in this devastating war. Moscow said about 30,000 Russian troops had been pulled out of the area from the west bank of the Dnipro River, although those figures have not been independently verified.
