VATICAN CITY (CNS) - On the day Pope Francis established as a day of prayer for peace in Ukraine, the pope appealed for an end to all war and prayed that dialogue, the common good and reconciliation would prevail. "Let us ask the Lord to grant that the country may grow in the spirit of brotherhood, and that all hurts, fears and divisions will be overcome," he said at the end of his weekly general audience in the Vatican's Paul VI audience hall January 26. "May the prayers and supplications that today rise up to heaven touch the minds and hearts of world leaders, so that dialogue may prevail and the common good be placed ahead of partisan interests" ... "Let us make our prayer for peace in the words of the Our Father, for it is the prayer of sons and daughters to the one Father, the prayer that makes us brothers and sisters, the prayer of children who plead for reconciliation and concord," ... "think about the more than 5 million people who were annihilated (in Ukraine) during the time of the last war. They are a suffering people, they suffered famine, they suffered so much cruelty and they deserve peace." Russia annexed Crimea in early 2014 and, shortly afterward, Russian-backed separatists began fighting Ukrainian government forces in the eastern Ukrainian regions of Donetsk and Luhansk. Some 1.5 million people have fled the region to other parts of Ukraine and thousands of civilians and soldiers have died or been injured.

Prayer for peace is stronger than any weapon, - Head of the UGCC calls on people to join World Prayer for Peace in Ukraine

The faithful of the Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church gratefully respond to the call of the Holy Father and join the World Prayer for Peace in Ukraine. His Beatitude Sviatoslav, the Father and Head of the UGCC personally invites through a video message all the faithful of the UGCC to join the prayer vigil. "Why do we need to pray so much for peace in Ukraine today? - asks the Major Archbishop of the UGCC and explains: - when new dangers arise and the enemy is on the verge, our military is testing its combat readiness, statesmen are working to improve social mechanisms, diplomats are working to ensure that the world supports our people and state. And what do Christians do? Christians pray, fast, and repent of their sins". According to him, praying for peace is stronger than any weapon. Moreover, prayer is the spiritual strength of people who believe. "I call on all the children of our Church to join the prayer spiritual watch wherever you are.
